Excerpt: . . . nal penalties for violations, authorizing civil enforcement proceedings by State and Federal authorities, as well as establishing regulations on how Internet service providers will terminate and block access to material or activity, which violates the gambling prohibition. On the other hand, the legislation contains provisions which might have made the late great Claude Rains blush. A number of exceptions to the general prohibitions on Internet gambling that permit, under certain circumstances, fantasy sports leagues, gambling on horse races, gambling on jai alai, and gambling on greyhound racing. The legislation also permits intrastate purchase of lottery tickets, but only if they are made in a public facility, which presumably means that you cant buy a lottery ticket from home over the Internet. This on the one hand, on the other hand approach to Internet gambling reminds me of the story of Father Murphy, who goes up into the pulpit on Sunday morning and says on Wednesday night in the church hall, Father Murphy lectures on the evils of gambling. Thursday...
