Rather to his surprise, in that house, he heard the piano tinkling out a popular song. Mrs. Dover sat where she had sat before, by the fire, and Vendred walked down the room and stood by her chair. The piano went on tinkling. Is your neuralgia gone? She had a large bound volume on her knees, the partition, as he saw, of some opera. She was turning over the leaves, but when he spoke she looked up and smiled. Do you know this? She closed the volume and showed the back on which the title was lettered. He saw it was Gluck s Iphigenia in Tauris. Yes, he answered; I heard it in Paris some years ago. She put the book on the floor by her chair. They want me to give four performances at Aix-les-Bains next August, and I m thinking it over. I don t believe I shall. It s such a fag all the way out there. Yes, said Vendred; and all for nothing, too. She seemed puzzled. For nothing? I don t quite understand I mean, as you re an amateur Oh, yes. She paused a moment, reflecting. I suppose they d make it worth my while, she said then with a slight laugh, and added as an after-thought, It s not in England, you know. They ought to give you what you want, he brought out with conviction. She laughed again. Oh, I m...
